MEMORANDUM
DM-OUCI-2020 -400

TO : REGIONAL DIRECTORS

FROM : DIOSDADO M. SAN ANTONIO
Undersecretary

SUBJECT : 2ND NIHONGO VIDEO CONTEST FOR SPFL-JAPANESE JHS AND SHS LEARNERS

DATE : December 1, 2020

In partnership with the Japanese Foundation Manila (JFM), the Department of Education, through the Bureau of Curriculum Development, announces the 2nd Nihongo Video Contest for Nihongojin or NiViCon for Nihongojin 2021. The contest is open to Filipino Junior High School and Senior High School learners who took the Special Program in Foreign Language Japanese (SPFL-Japanese).

Learners who are fascinated and interested in Japanese culture are welcome to participate. It has two categories to choose from: Category A views on "My Daily Life" and Category B personifies on "Learning Japanese in the New Normal". The video contest aims to encourage students to continue learning Nihongo even in the current community quarantine due to COVID 19 as well as to create a platform for learners to hone and showcase their ICT or entertainment, multimedia computing skills on video making/production authenticating Japanese expressions, culture appreciation and influences.

The details of the contest, specifically the guidelines and prizes, can be accessed through <https://bit.ly/NiViCon2021> and the application form on <https://bit.ly/NiViCon2021App>. Attached are the electronic files (guidelines, consent form, poster) for your reference. Deadline of application is on December 18, 2020 at 5:00 PM and the awarding ceremony will be on February 20, 2021 via Facebook Livestream.

Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
