No. 8, s. 2021

PARTICIPATION IN THE CULTURE AND ARTS TRAINERS
AND INSTRUCTORS SUMMIT (CATIS) 2021

FOR: ALL PRESIDENTS /HEADS
Higher Education Institutions
Region 1

1. As part of Project POWER (Pioneering Opportunities, Weaving Educational Reinvention) spearheaded by the Education and Manpower Sub-committee of the Regional Development Council, this office will be conducting the Culture and Arts Trainers and Instructors Summit (CATIS) on March 23, 2021 at 8:30 a.m. -3:00 p.m. via Zoom and to be streamed live on CHED Region 1 Facebook page.
2. This activity aims to raise awareness and enhance the skills of Region 1 teachers, trainers, and instructors in the protection, conservation, preservation, and promotion of local culture, arts, and heritage by using education and research. Specifically, the activity aims to:
 - a. present the ancestral domains in Region 1 and discuss ways on how to integrate Indigenous Peoples (IP) education in the curriculum;
 - b. discuss the process of cultural mapping (CM) and ways on how HEIs can partner with LGUs for CM activities;
 - c. share some cultural studies methodologies and gaps/opportunities for cultural research activities; and
 - d. introduce creative economy and its potential in the country and Arts and Culture and Creative Bloc's initiatives/resolutions in protecting, promoting, and bolstering arts and culture as well as creative industries.
3. Participants to the said activity are culture and arts trainers/directors, Humanities instructors, and Music, Arts, Physical Education, and Health (MAPEH) teachers.
4. There will be NO REGISTRATION FEE; however, only 500 participants will be accommodated in the Zoom Meeting Room. Those who cannot join via Zoom may still watch the webinar via CHED Region 1 Facebook page.
5. Certificates of Participation will be awarded. Participants should accomplish the evaluation form after the webinar to claim their certificates which will be issued at least two weeks after the activity.
