The Region I Federation of Supreme Student Government Seal

Seal Symbolism

- The Stars. The six (6) stars on the outer part of the seal represent hope, faith, guidance, God, excellence, and humanity which are important for an organization to possess. The fourteen (14) rounded stars represent the fourteen (14) Schools Divisions of Region I.
- The Colors:
  - Green vine leaf represents the rich and continuously growing success of Region I.
  - Green lower background represents the rich lands of Region I.
  - Yellow upper background that has a sun rising represents the prosperity of Region I and optimism for a bright future of every Student of the fourteen (14) Schools Divisions of Region I.
  - Violet symbolizes loyalty.
- The Book: the violet book represents loyalty to education and to our beloved Region.
- The Left and Right Side of the Book: The left side content of the book represents the four (4) provinces of Region I (Pangasinan, Ilocos Norte, Ilocos Sur and La Union). The hands represent the solidarity of the four (4) provinces. The right side of the book represents the whole map of Region I.
- The Fire: The fire that is surrounded by the fourteen (14) stars represents the Department of Education which keeps the burning passion of every schools division in Region I.
- The Red Number: The red number I represents the numerical number of our region, Region I. It gives emphasis to what region we are and it gives the analogy that Region I always does its best to be number 1.
