Subject: Request for Endorsement - 8th International Conference on Children and Young Adults Librarianship

Dear Secretary Duterte-Carpio:

Greetings from the National Library of the Philippines (NLP)!

The NLP and the Provincial Government of Pangasinan through the Pangasinan Provincial Library (PPL), in partnership with the Association of Pangasinan Public Librarians, Inc. (APPLI), the Philippine Association of School Librarians, Inc. (PASLI), and the ASEAN Public Libraries Information Network (APLIN) will conduct the 8th International Conference on Children and Young Adults Librarianship (8th ICCYAL) with the theme “ICYMI: Libraries and Community are Co-Partners in Advancing Exemplary Children and Young Adults Library Services!” on 01-04 October 2024 at Sison Auditorium, Lingayen, Pangasinan.

The 8th ICCYAL is a 3-day face-to-face conference designed to provide a venue for acquiring knowledge, skills, and attitudes in the development of children and young adult libraries. It aims to showcase inspiring experiences, adaptations, trends, and best practices of children and young adult programs and services, as well as stories of establishing a sustainable future for these libraries within and outside the country. Specifically, its objectives are as follows:

NLP Building, T.M. Kalaw Street, Ermita, Manila 1000, Philippines
+632 5314-2100 loc. 303 | 0917-8718228

Republic of the Philippines
NATIONAL LIBRARY OF THE PHILIPPINES
Office of the Director

1. Showcase children and young adult libraries within and outside the country that were able to adapt quickly and efficiently their programs and services geared towards addressing the current state of future development of these libraries.
2. Develop and sustain connections and collaborations between library organizations and other institutions/stakeholders having similar/related visions and missions for children and young adult libraries to adapt quickly to the changing needs and demands of clients.
3. Advocate the important role of libraries for children and young adults in the advent of technology and service enhancements.
4. Draw regular book allocation, particularly the NLP's affiliated public libraries.
5. Establish a centralized platform where librarians and officials can personally select, inquire about, and engage with publishers, thereby consolidating a wide array of available materials for potential library acquisitions.
6. Recognize deserving children's librarians, officers-in-charge, and library service.

The event is expected to be attended by both local and foreign delegates from public libraries, local government officials and staff, school libraries, academic libraries, special libraries, and other interested staff.

In this regard, the agency would like to request that DepEd Endorsement be made to authorize and/or enjoin the library and information professional and other interested stakeholders in public schools to actively participate in the conference as part of their professional learning and development to facilitate effective and efficient library services in their locality.

The 8th International Conference on Children and Young Adults Librarianship will entail a registration fee. To reserve a slot, a downpayment of Php 2,000.00 may be made upon online registration until 30 August 2024. However, full payment is encouraged to avoid unnecessary steps during the onsite registration.
